What is the Virginia Association of Adult 4-H Volunteer Leaders, Inc. ? (VAA4-HVL)?

The Virginia Association of Adult 4-H Volunteer Leaders, Inc., is organized as a non-profit organization made up of adult volunteers who are serving in Virginia as 4-H Volunteer Leaders. The purposes of the Association are as follows:

1. To promote the 4-H program and encourage community support so that all youth of eligible 4-H age shall have the opportunity to benefit from this youth development program.
2. To organize and develop 4-H volunteer leaders.
3. To participate in planning statewide 4-H programs.
4. To provide for an Adult 4-H Volunteer to be on every state wide 4-H committee.

4-H VOLUNTEER LEADERS

- Learn through involvement with other adults in seminars, workshops, and training courses.
- Work to make the best better through teaching 4-Hers.
- Provide assistance to 4-H youth agents in counties or cities by managing a club, helping with training, providing transportation, and so on.
- Make 4-H a family affair! Serve as county, district, or state 4-H officers.
