

TEAM PRESENTATION CONTEST

OBJECTIVES: The primary objective of the Team Presentation contest is to provide, in a friendly but competitive setting, an opportunity for youth enrolled in 4-H to demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of a specific equine-related topic, and present that topic to an audience. It is hoped that this contest will generate new friendships and be a rewarding experience for the contestants.

ELIGIBILITY: (all speaking contests)

1. Each contestant must be a bonafide 4-H Club Horse Project Member in Virginia.
2. Eligibility for contestants must be met for the Virginia 4-H Recognition and Awards Handbook and is the responsibility at all levels of the respective Extension Agent.
3. **NEW for 2016: Each District will be eligible to enter 6 Junior and 6 Senior 4-H member for each of the presentation divisions (public speaking, individual presentations, and team presentations). Entry forms will be sent to each District Horse Council and the District Horse Council will be responsible for submitting the entry or providing the entry forms to those teams or individuals representing the district. A team must be comprised of two members. 24 4-H members will be accepted for each age division per District. A waiting list will be established by each district if necessary. Any scholarships must be arranged for at the local level. Juniors and Seniors will be judged in separate contests.
4. Individuals 19 years of age or older before January 1st of the contest year are ineligible. Junior contestants must turn 9 years of age on or before September 30 of the year in which the contest is held. Senior contestants are those 14 years of age or older before January 1st and junior contestants are under 14 years of age as of January 1st of the contest year. This age eligibility conforms to the National 4-H Horse Contest Rules and Regulations.
5. The senior winning Presentation Team at the state contest will be invited to represent Virginia in the Eastern National Contest at Louisville, KY, with the top two teams being invited to participate at the Southern Regional 4-H Horse Championship Team Presentation Contest. Upon participation at the National contest the youth will be ineligible to compete in future 4-H Team Presentation contests.
6. Units should encourage all 4-H horse members to study and compete on an open participation basis. Unit members may be selected by contests or by any method acceptable and designated by leaders and approved by the extension units.

STATE CONTEST:

The state contest will be scheduled during the spring of each year. Entry forms will be sent out in advance. Teams must be county teams or can be from neighboring counties as long as a particular county does not have enough members to make up the two person team and the teammates have practiced and competed together at the county level.

GENERAL GUIDELINES:

1. Working orders will be drawn and posted in advance of the contest. Working order may be changed to accommodate 4-H members when conflicts arise with the Horse Judging classes.

2. May be a demonstration or illustrated talk. Both presentation forms are acceptable and will be evaluated equally, although the delivery methods are different. Both should utilize visual aids to help convey the major points of the presentation and more than one type of visual aid is preferable.
