Eligibility

The Virginia 4-H Shooting Education Teen Ambassador Program affords teens the opportunity to demonstrate their skills in citizenship, leadership and public speaking as they travel around Virginia serving as advocates and spokespersons for 4-H Shooting Education at a variety of trainings, events and competitions. To apply, teens must:

- be 15 years of age but not over the age of 19 as of December 31st
- have a GPA of 2.5 or higher
- be enrolled in 4-H and actively participating in a 4-H Shooting Education Club
- be willing and able to attend training weekends and state-wide shooting education events. Teens may have to bear the total cost of this training (meals, lodging, travel, etc.)
- be aware that only a limited number of teens from across the state will be selected to serve as Virginia Ambassadors. Serve a 2 year term (renewable) if selected
- be willing and able to take limited time off from school (3 to 5 days per school year) if selected as a Virginia Ambassador
