Virginia 4-H Covid Rules:

4-H youth are known for their citizenship, respect, and efforts to always do what is right. Horse shows are an opportunity for these youth to wear masks, physical distance, and set a good example, regardless of personal beliefs. Riders/horse handlers will not be discounted in the ring for wearing a face covering, such as a gaiter pulled down on their neck, while handling or showing a horse.

To attend our show, you must agree to the following for the safety and well-being of others in attendance at this show.

- Follow all COVID-19 recommendations set forth by VCE
- Wear face coverings unless directly handling an equine.
- Physical distance 6 ft apart from others, with the exception of immediate family members. Extra care must be considered in the vicinity of horse handlers that are not wearing face coverings.
- Social media posts must clearly exhibit appropriate physical distancing and those pictured must be wearing masks unless handling a horse. Adhere to the markers placed for physical distancing in the line-up at the arena gate and at the show secretary's check-in, and other areas as marked
- Leaving the grounds as soon as participation is complete.
- Do not invite extra spectators or guests. The show is limited to competitors, trainers, riders, grooms, owners, competition staff, and parents or other adults attending as a minor's guardian only.
- Exhibitors and their family members or pods (non-family groups traveling together) are not required to wear face coverings at their own personal vehicle/horse trailer (considered their home base). When leaving home base, all individuals must wear a face covering. If at any point, you or any family member participating, is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 while at the show or prior to the show, you will excuse yourself from the event, and notify show management.
