

VIRGINIA STATE HORSE JUDGING CONTEST RULES AND REGULATIONS

OBJECTIVES: The primary objective of the Horse Judging contest is to provide, in a friendly but competitive setting, an opportunity for youth enrolled in 4-H to demonstrate their knowledge of judging conformation and performances classes of a variety of breeds and disciplines. It is hoped that this contest will generate new friendships and be a rewarding experience for the contestants.

I. ELIGIBILITY & GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. Each contestant must be a bonafide 4-H Club Horse Project Member in Virginia.
2. Eligibility for contestants must be met for the Virginia 4-H Recognition and Awards Handbook and is the responsibility at all levels of the respective Extension Agent. Members must meet the eligibility requirements for judging.
3. Each county or unit will be eligible to enter all junior and senior 4-H members that are qualified by participation at the unit level. A team must be comprised of at least three members to be considered for team awards. One or two individuals from a county may compete if a team of 3 or 4 cannot be assembled. The qualifying event may include a county Horse Judging contest, clinic or other organized training session that provides a simulated contest experience that can properly prepare contestants to compete. Any scholarships must be arranged for at the local level.
4. Individuals 19 years of age or older before January 1st of the contest year are ineligible. Junior contestants must turn 9 years of age on or before September 30 of the year in which the contest is held. Senior contestants are those 14 years of age or older before January 1st and junior contestants are under 14 years of age as of January 1st of the contest year. This age eligibility conforms to the National 4-H Horse Contest Rules and Regulations. After members have served two years on the State Horse Judging Team or competed at Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup, whichever is first, they are ineligible to further compete in 4-H Horse Judging.
5. 4-H contestants may compete in one of 4 divisions. Junior and Senior are explained above, and are based on age.
  - Senior Novice division is for seniors who have not previously competed in the Virginia State 4-H Horse Judging Contest, thus they are in their first year of competition at the state contest. Senior Novice contestants are not required to give reasons, however may have the option at the contest to deliver a set of unjudged reasons to a non-official. Competition for Senior Novice is as an individual only.
  - Senior contestants will give 4 sets of reasons (2 on halter classes, 2 on performance classes). Competition for Seniors is both individual and team, with the top 3 scores on a team being used to calculate team totals.
  - Junior contestants will give 2 sets of reasons (1 halter, 1 performance). This is not optional. Competition for Juniors is both as team and individual, with the reasons score being added into the total score, and the top 3 scores on a team will be used to calculate team totals.
  - Junior Novice contestants are not required to give reasons but may have the option at the contest to deliver a set of unjudged reasons to a non-official. Junior Novice contestants may have competed in a previous State 4-H Horse Judging Contest. Junior Novice competition is as individual only.
6. (new for 2019) Contestants may compete in both 4-H and FFA division. Note eligibility for 4-H members stated above. The two contests will be scored independently and will run concurrently. Contestants must be pre-entered separately for each contest.

7. The State 4-H Horse Judging Team will consist of 8 top-placing senior individuals (NOT Sr. Novice) in the State Contest. These individuals will be required to attend training sessions during the summer. Contests in which they will compete are held in late summer and during the fall. The 4 Senior members of the state HJ team will be invited to represent Virginia in the Eastern National 4-H Roundup Horse Judging Contest at Louisville, KY, with the entire 2 team State team being invited to participate at the Southern Regional 4-H Horse Championship Horse Judging Contest. After members have served two years on the State Horse Judging Team or competed at Eastern National 4-H Horse Roundup, whichever is first, they are ineligible to further compete in 4-H Horse Judging.
8. Units should encourage all 4-H horse members to study and compete for the unit teams on an open participation basis. Unit team members may be selected by contests or by any method acceptable and designated by leaders and approved by the extension units.

II. STATE CONTEST

The state contest will be scheduled during the spring of each year. Entry forms will be sent out in advance. No team of less than three members may compete as a team at any level but all contestants may compete for individual awards. Teams must be county teams or can be from neighboring counties as long as a particular county does not have enough members to make up one full team and all members have practiced and competed together at the county level.

III. PREPARATORY CONTESTS

Contests at local or district level may include separate contests for juniors and seniors. The state contest will be for both junior and senior contestants; however, a team cannot be a mix of juniors and seniors.

IV. AWARDS

1. Awards will be presented to the top ten individuals in the Halter division, Performance division, Reasons division and Overall.
2. Each member of the top ten teams in the Halter division, Performance division, Reasons division and Overall will receive awards.

County and district awards are to be arranged for at that level. State awards will include appropriate ribbons and plaques or trophies and coach awards.

V. RULES

These rules have been approved by the State 4-H Horse Advisory Committee and appropriate 4-H and Animal Science administration. Any suggestions for revisions should be made to the respective advisory committee member.

All rules, contest conduct, results, questions, etc. are final and non-protestable at the conclusion of the contest and all inquiries will receive the answer as noted in this sentence. All participants accept these rules upon entry and involvement in the program.

The State Horse Judging Team will be eligible to represent Virginia in the National Championship competition. (All arrangements - training, travel and finance to be arranged for at local level). The state team must also meet specific rules from the national contest for participation. Counties may devise their own rules and procedures but the rules in this outline will apply for state. Teams going to nationals will need to practice extensively to be competitive. Any member participating in the national contest will be ineligible to participate in the state program in this contest area in the future.

VI. THE CONTEST

Judging Classes

1. 4-6 Halter and 4-6 Performance classes are used trying to use several different breeds of horses. Halter horses are judged as sound of limb, eye, wind, mouth and reproductive organs, Performance horses judged as they go in the class and all tack and attire is considered legal.
2. Rules for placing the classes are United States Equestrian Federation rules or the respective breed rules.
3. Final placing for each class and the cuts for the class are determined by the official judges for the contest. Three judges and a referee judge are suggested as an appropriate number. If additional reasons takers are needed, they should be in the ring observing the class that they will be listening to.
