

“HORSE TAILS & TRAILS”

Date: June 26 – 29, 2017 (Mon.-Thurs.)

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Ages: 9-13

Cost: $125

Crazy about horses? Come experience the cowboy/cowgirl life at Fort Valley Ranch located in Shenandoah County, VA. Campers will learn the basics of horse safety, anatomy, equipment, grooming, and proper care as well as handling. Participants will also learn mounting and basic riding skills. On the last day, dress up in your best cowboy/cowgirl outfit to experience a real trail ride into the George Washington National Forest. A prize will be given to the best-dressed cowboy/cowgirl. Proper protective clothing and closed toe footwear is necessary for outdoor horse activities at all times. Games, crafts, and other learning exercises will be utilized to teach participants all about the world of horses. Bring your own packed lunch. A light snack/drink will be available. Deposit of $80 is due upon registration and the balance is due June 14. Register online at: www.scpr.signup.info or by calling the Shenandoah County Parks & Recreation at (540) 459-6777. For more information, call Shenandoah County Parks & Recreation at (540) 459-6777 or and/or the Virginia Cooperative Extension of Shenandoah County at (540)459-6140.

Collaboratively sponsored by VCE-Shenandoah County 4-H; Shenandoah County Parks & Recreation; Fort Valley Ranch; and Shenandoah Trail Riders & Horseman’s Association.
