J.G.S. Riding Open Horse Show to benefit the Chesterfield County Classic Equestrians 4-H Club

J.G.S. Riding will be hosting a Horse Show on April 4th, 2020 to benefit the Chesterfield Classic Equestrians. The show will be held at the Amelia County State Fair Grounds. This show has a threefold purpose: First, to teach the 4-H'ers about the hours of preparation, dedication and hard work it takes to run a horse show. Second, give 4-H'ers an environment where they can learn about riding in a horse show and offer a variety of classes for all riders and horses. The final purpose is a fundraiser for the Classic Equestrians 4-H Club

The proceeds raised by this show will go to funding educational experiences for our club members.

- 4-H State Horse Show. To qualify for this 4-day competition, participants are required to perform a series of activities throughout the year. This is the pinnacle achievement for all 4-H riders.
- 4-H State Congress at Virginia Tech. This 3-day camp at Virginia Tech introduces 4-H members to agricultural majors and exposes participants to citizenship/team building activities.
- Scholarships for graduating seniors.
- Educational Field Trips.

Thank you for helping our club reach our goals. 4-H relies on dedicated volunteers to teach our youth about opportunities in life, teach citizenship and sportsmanship along the way. Thank you for helping our club.
