

Connie Collier Scholarship Award Winner

Abby Worth-Jones of Washington County

Well rounded definitely describes this year's winner of the Connie Collier 4-H Scholarship Award. Her 4-H achievements include:

- Being elected to serve as one of the Southwest District's Ambassadors on the State 4-H Cabinet
- Winning the Individual Presentation Contest at the Southern Regional 4-H Horse Championships
- Receiving both the Gold Clover Achievement and I Dare You awards
- Being tapped into the Virginia Chapter of 4-H All Stars

Over the years, she has carried projects ranging from Poultry to Photography to Public Speaking, and has held many leadership roles at the club and county level.

Influenced by her work with special needs children and horses, she plans to pursue a five-year Masters program in Special Education at Radford after completing her Associates degree at Highland Community College next spring. Her dream job is to be a Pediatric Occupational Therapist.

Congratulations to Abby Worth-Jones of Washington County!
