What is 4-H? 4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship, and life skills.

4-H Mission: To develop youth and adults working with those youth to realize their full potential – becoming effective, contributing citizens through participation in research-based, non-formal, hands-on educational experiences.

4-H Enrollment 202,176 members
- 50% females
- 50% males
- 39% minority enrollment

4-H Adult Volunteers 10,681 volunteers

Where 4-H Members Live:
- 5% Farms
- 30% Towns and Rural Areas of 10,000 or less population
- 13% Towns and Cities of 10,000-50,000 population
- 52% Suburbs and Cities of 50,000 or more population

Age of 4-H Members: (Does not add up to 100% due to special and not in school members)
- 42% Cloverbud (5-8 years of age)
- 36% Juniors (9-11 years of age)
- 10% Intermediates (12-13 years of age)
- 9% Seniors (14-19 years of age)

4-H Overnight Campers 10,730 participants

106 Units (counties and cities) and 6 all-year-round 4-H Educational Centers

Data collected from the 2014 Virginia 4-H ES-237 Reports