RE: 2022 Block & Bridle Club Stockmen's, Livestock Judging, and Meat Evaluation Contests

The Block & Bridle Club at Virginia Tech has scheduled their 2022 Stockmen's and Livestock Judging contests for Friday, February 25th and Saturday, February 26th, respectively. The Meat Judging contests will be held the following Saturday on March 5th. These contests will be held on the Virginia Tech campus in Blacksburg with the livestock judging and stockmen's contests held in the Alphin-Stuart Arena. The meat judging contest will be held in the Meat Science Center and Litton-Reaves Hall.

It has been two years since these contests were held in-person, so please read all parts carefully. There have been several changes to the contest schedule, scoring, contestant responses, and entry forms. A detailed schedule with contest starting times and locations can be found on the last page of this letter. Please note: age divisions and/or contest divisions are being held at different times to accommodate participant numbers and comply with COVID guidelines.

COVID PROTOCOL: COVID Protocol for VA Tech and Virginia Cooperative Extension, at the time of the contest, will be followed and enforced. Current guidelines require that ALL participants, regardless of vaccination status, (contestants, coaches, volunteers, parents, and contest administrators) wear a mask when indoors at a VA Tech facility – this includes LARNA and any on-campus buildings that may be used.

COVID Protocol is subject to change and will be communicated to all registered participants prior to the contest

There is no limit to the number of teams a unit or chapter can enter in any contest. For Stockmen's and Livestock Judging there are NOT separate 4-H and FFA contests; participants will need to choose whether they compete as an FFA member or a 4-H member. Please see information specific to the Meats evaluation contest for details on dual entry in that event. Out-of-state teams and individuals are allowed to compete in all three contests.

All Contests - Contestant Eligibility: All contestants must be enrolled in either the 4-H unit or FFA chapter that they represent in these contests. No exceptions, and enrollment will be checked. Contestant eligibility will be verified using 4HOnline and the State FFA enrollment records for all contestants.

Entry Fees - The entry fee is $6 per individual in all divisions of the Stockmen's Contest and the Regular (non-reasons) divisions of the Livestock Judging Contest. Individuals competing in the Advanced divisions of the Livestock Judging contest and the Meats Judging Contests will pay an $11.00/person entry fee – this includes lunch for those contestants. All entries are due no later than February 14th. Late entries will not be accepted. Entry fees should be paid on the day of the contest and will be assessed based on the number of youth ENTERED in the entry system. Please do NOT submit payment when mailing your entry forms. Payment should be brought the day of the contests. Acceptable forms of payment are:

- Personal, business, or school check made payable to: Virginia Tech Block and Bridle Club

PLEASE DO NOT SEND CHECKS WITH ENTRY FORMS

That information will be provided during check-in. Please pre-enter all youth that want to participate. Only pre-entered youth that have been verified as enrolled and eligible will be allowed to participate in the contests.

Contestants 13 years and younger as of January 1, 2022 (4-H) or 6th, 7th, 8th, or 9th grades (FFA) will compete in the junior division. All contestants ages 14 to 18 as of January 1, 2022 or 9th grade or later (FFA) will compete in the senior division.

Stockmen's Contest Eligibility - Members who have previously participated in the National 4-H Skillathon contest are not eligible to participate in this contest as a 4-H or FFA contestant. The contest will be held Friday, February 25th. Contest divisions and contestant eligibility are detailed in the summary table.

Stockmen's Contestant Responses: All stockmen's contest participants (junior and senior) will be scored using our Virginia Skillathon Scantron sheet. This form can be found at: <https://www.judgingcard.com/ScanSheets/samples/UnivD-VA-Skillathon.pdf> A separate sheet with retail meat identification choices will be provided for the Meat ID station, and will be used to complete that portion of the scantron – contestants will need to identify the species (2 pts) and retail cut (3 pts). Points are awarded for each category. Please familiarize your contestants with this form before the contest. All contestants will need a clipboard and at least one No.2 pencil to complete the scantron sheet. Junior and senior contestants will compete in separate divisions and separate times of the day to accommodate contestant numbers and remain COVID guideline compliant.

Livestock Judging Contest – This contest will consist of eight classes of beef cattle, swine, sheep, and meat goats. Performance data may be provided for at least one breeding class in each species. Ten questions will be asked on 2 classes. Contestants may have to judge breeding or market classes of each species. Market lambs may be handled in racks by all contestants – this will be at the discretion of the officials. Meat goats could be used for either a reasons or question class.

The Livestock Judging contest will be broken into four divisions:

- Junior Regular Livestock Judging and Senior Regular Livestock Judging – these contestants will NOT give reasons and will judge after lunch on Saturday, February 26th
- Junior Advanced Livestock Judging and Senior Advanced Livestock Judging – these contestants will place classes in the morning (February 26th) and give reasons in the afternoon at Litton Reaves (2 sets for Juniors and 4 sets for Seniors)

- UltraSource: <https://www.ultrasourceusa.com/>

National Contest Participation – The high Virginia team in the senior 4-H division will be invited to compete at the National 4-H Meat Judging Contest. That will be held at Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas in October.

Information about past 4-H contests and background material useful in training and preparing teams can be found at the American Meat Science Association website at: <http://www.meatscience.org/students/meat-judging-program/national-4-h-meat-judging>.
