

2012 State 4-H Livestock Judging Contest

Class Questions

Class 2 Market Steers (Official Placing: 3214, Cuts: 2-4-5)

1. Which market steer appears to be hardest feeding and tightest ribbed?
2. Which steer is flattest through his lower quarter?
3. Which steer best combines muscle and body depth without sacrificing cutability?
4. Which steer will rail the carcass with most back fat at the 12th rib?
5. Which steer is the coarsest shouldered?
6. Which steer has white on his underline?
7. Which steer will yield the lowest quality grading carcass?
8. Which steer is steepest hipped, with most set to his hind leg?
9. Which steer has the split ear?
10. Which steer will rail the heaviest carcass weight?

Class 6 Breeding Does (Official Placing: 3142, Cuts: 5-3-4)

1. Which doe has the least amount of udder fat?
2. Which doe has the broken horn?
3. Which doe has the lightest colored head?
4. Which doe has the longest, thinnest, most feminine neck?
5. Which doe has the least weight per day of age?
6. Which doe is the finest boned?
7. Which doe is levellest and most correct out of her hip?
8. Which doe is the heaviest conditioned?
9. Between does 2 and 4, which had the least Boer breed character?
10. Which doe had the most arch and spring of rib?

Class 8 Breeding Gilts (Official Placing: 1324, Cuts: 3-6-5)

1. Which gilt has the bluntest underline?
2. Which gilt was the poorest structured off both ends?
3. Which gilt had the underline with the pin nipple?
4. Which gilt was the lightest muscled?
5. Which gilt was blue topped?
6. Which gilt had the smallest, most upturned vulva?
7. Which gilt had the most cushion off of her front end?
8. Which gilt was most restricted in her rear leg movement?
9. Which gilt was the slowest growing, lightest muscled?
10. Which gilt is the least scenario adaptable?