Making Connections and Saving Contacts

One of the benefits to using the Ohio MarketMaker program is your ability to make connections through the website and store those contacts in your profile. To do this, you must already have an account established and have your Username and Password ready.

If you have already used the search feature, you know how easy it is to find exactly what you're looking for. By searching while being logged into your account, you can quickly save contacts for future reference.

Go to www.ohiomarketmaker.com and learn how easy it is to save your contacts so you can quickly reconnect.

Making Connections and Saving Contacts

Make your search selection. For our example, we will search for an apple farmer. Click on "Farmer" and an expanded menu will appear. From there, click on "Fruits and Nuts."

www.ohiomarketmaker.com

Making Connections and Saving Contacts

This search resulted in 244 fruit and nut farmers in Ohio. Now we need to find the ones who grow apples. To do that, click on "Fruit Product Type."
