

Beef & Lamb

Hormones are allowed in the production of these species.

A producer must provide sufficient documentation that no hormones were used in production to use the "no hormones added" label.

Hogs, Poultry, & Goats

Hormones are federally regulated and not allowed in the production of these species.

"Federal regulations prohibit the use of hormones" must accompany any "no hormones added" claim on these products.

NO hormones added