

organic

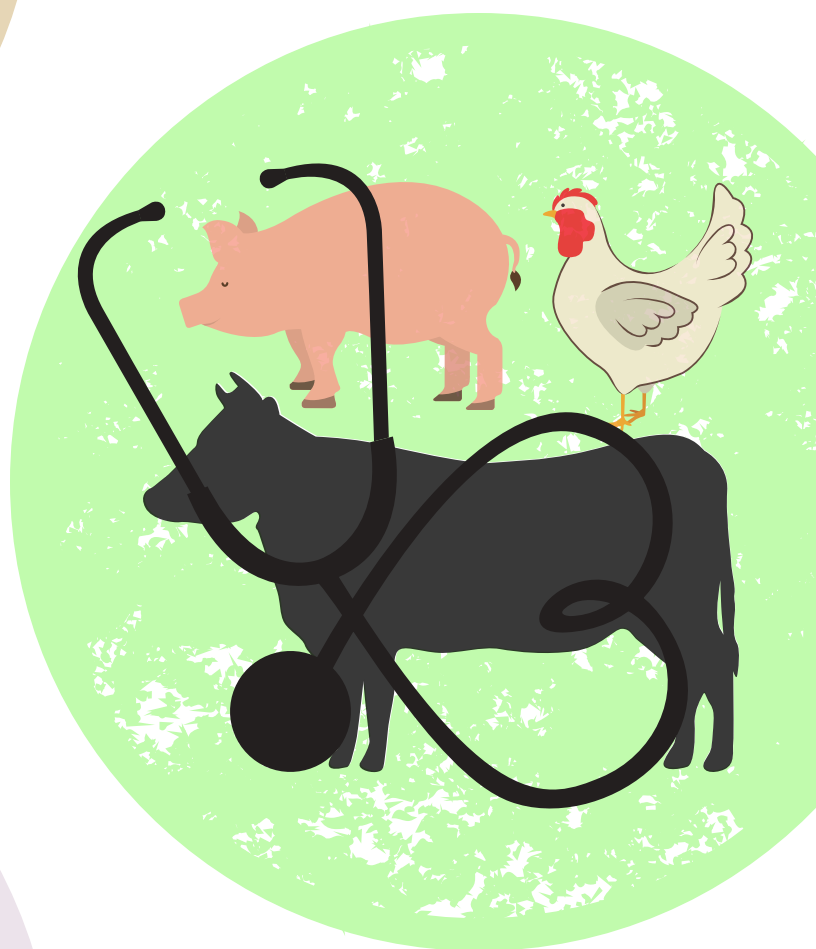

Animals are raised per animal health and welfare standards

Animals are fed 100% organic feed

Animals have access to outdoors year round

Animals are not given antibiotics or growth hormones

Animals are raised on certified organic land meeting all organic crop production standards