BUY FRESH BUY LOCAL®

LOCAL FOOD DIRECTORY

WHY BUY LOCAL?

Tastier & Longer Lasting Food

Neighboring farms can pick and sell you their fruits and vegetables when they are most fresh. Avoid purchasing imported foods that lose nutrients and see their best days in warehouses or in thousands of miles of travel.

Invest in Local Families & Communities

When you shop local, you help someone in your community feed their family and keep their business alive. Gain a better understanding of how your food was grown by forming trustworthy relationships with local farmers.

Strengthen Your Local Economy

The dollars you spend on local food are more likely to stay in your community. These food dollars help local businesses keep and create more jobs.

Leave a Lighter Carbon Footprint

Local farms help preserve farmland and environmental resources near you. The greater the distance between a farm and your plate, the more non-renewable resources are needed to process, pack, transport, and store food.

Buy Local to Invest in the Future

Support local farmers today so that there will be farms and local food businesses in your community tomorrow!

THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY BUY FRESH BUY LOCAL GUIDE

YOUR GUIDE TO THE LOCAL FOODS & FARMS OF THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Across the great state of Virginia, Buy Fresh Buy Local chapters have been founded to advocate for local food stakeholders. The Shenandoah Valley Chapter's food guide is a collaborative initiative of Virginia Cooperative Extension, community partners, and more, to bring you the most up-to-date information about what is happening on the farms and local food systems across the Valley.

We want you to celebrate and take advantage of what this area offers regarding local food!

We invite you to get to know the farms and businesses listed in the guide, as well as the sponsors and community partners. Learn exactly where your food is coming from by asking farmers themselves how they grew it. Commitment to a local and regional food system from local collaborators is the reason the chapter and this guide exist.

If you love the guide, find errors in the listings, or feel there are ways we can make it better, please share your thoughts. Visit tinyurl.com/2017-2018GuideFeedback or scan the QR code below to provide any feedback you may have.

Cheers to another year of buying fantastic fresh and local food!

LOOK HOW FAR YOUR DOLLARS CAN GO

A little goes a long way! If every household in our ten county region spent $10 a week on local agricultural products the Shenandoah Valley would see a $115 million dollar direct economic return.

Over $1.7 billion dollars would be generated in Virginia if every household spent $10 per week or just 10% of their annual food budget on local products.

See the map below to learn how buying local can positively impact your community!

LISTING ICONS EXPLAINED

Listings that display this icon accept SNAP and EBT benefits.

Learn more about SNAP acceptance by visiting www.fns.usda.gov/ebt/snap-and-farmers-markets

Get excited! Listings with this Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) icon offer you the chance to subscribe to a weekly or bi-weekly box of fresh local food products. Every CSA offers unique foods brought to you by local farmers.

For more info on CSAs, visit www.nal.usda.gov

Listings marked with the Fields of Gold icon indicate that you are invited to experience agriculture first-hand at these agritourism venues that are open to the public! Fields of Gold does not cover agritourism operations in Frederick, Clarke, or Warren counties. Read business descriptions to find out if you are welcome on their farm.

Visit www.FieldsOfGold.org for more info!

USDA Organic: Farms listed with this icon met the USDA standards of "organic" growing practices or sell certified organic products.

Learn more about USDA Certified Organic products by visiting www.usda.gov/topics/organic.

 VIRGINIA FRUIT AND VEGETABLE AVAILABILITY CALENDAR We encourage you to always try to shop local first before resorting to produce that traveled thousands of miles to get to your grocery store. Local protein can often be found year-round, while certain Virginia grown fruits and vegetables are "in season" during certain months of the year. Greenhouse grown foods often have extended seasons.
